you will have reason to be satisfied that we mean most sincerely to regard the welfare of our pupils, & that towards yourself we have no other feelings than those of the kindest wishes for your usefulness & happiness.

I am truly yours &c—

E. Porter.

E. Porter Pres
Andover
June 21. 1828.

Andover June 21. 1828.

Dear Sir,

Your dismission has been made out & sent to Mr. Farrar for his signature as Com-mittee of Trustees. He says he will forward it so soon as he can do it consistently with Laws Ch. IV. Sec. 14. that is so soon as a small unadjusted balance against you is paid. I reminded him that you thought the whole paid already, except a small mistake which you would notify on coming here. As the dismis-
-sion will not be wanted by you till then, he thinks you had better let it rest in his hands till you come.

Any explanations you may wish will be cheerfully given when you come to Andover. While our Seminary must be conducted by established, gen-eral principles, which at times may contravene the opinions or the convenience of individuals, I trust